20

young
designers
to watch

THERE IS SOMETHING HIGHLY SATISFYING ABOUT WATCHING someone do what they were born to do. That's the way it is with these 20 young traditional designers we're keeping our eye on as the decade turns. From the elegant eccentricity of NYC's Ondine Karady (formerly a set decorator for HBO's Sex and the City) to the neutral but nuanced urban interiors of Washington, D.C.'s Paul Corrie, these vibrant designers are exploring what it means to be traditional in the 21st century. For some, it means saturated colors and lively patterns that buzz with youthful energy; for some, it means going gorgeously green; for some, it means classic architecture rendered eloquent through elegant restraint.

Although their visions are diverse, what unites them is the conviction that honoring the past goes hand in hand with interpreting the present. Pablo Picasso once said, "it takes a long time to become young." We look forward to watching these up-and-comers for a long time to come.

ELIZABETH BAUER
